A political party is a group of people who come together to contest elections and hold power in the government. They agree on some policies and programs for the society with a view to promote the collective good.

Components of a Political Party

1. The Leaders: They formulate policies and programs and choose candidates.
2. The Active Members: They are involved in the daily working of the party.
3. The Followers: The dedicated voters strictly committed to the ideology of the party.

⚡ Party Systems

Different countries have different party systems based on their social and geographical diversity.

- One-Party System: Only one party is allowed to control and run the government (e.g., China).
- Two-Party System: Power usually changes freely between two main parties. 📝 Quick Revision

Challenges to Political Parties

1. Lack of internal democracy.
2. Dynastic succession.
3. Growing role of money and muscle power.
4. Parties do not seem to offer a meaningful choice to the voters.
